

Program to add two numbers without using arithmetic operator

Step 1: Declare variables and initiate values for them.

Step 2 : Logic : We can increment first number for number of times as second number.

Step 3 : Print first number which was incremented

